1. District Updates

Central

a. DI coaches meeting was held with updates on rules from Don Carnes. A training session, working towards satisfying Level D certification will be held. U.S. Lacrosse suggests that high schools should try to use more 3 man crews for competitive games due to the fast pace of the new rules.

South

a. DI coaches meeting was held. Rule changes were discussed and about 40% of teams represented.

San Antonio

a. Coaches meeting by email regarding new rules.

North

a. Hebron JV team, new team

b. TK Gorman, a Tyler team is considering joining THSLL. They have scheduled a few games with THSLL teams.

2. Game Reports -Home team submits, generates copy to coordinator and Nancy. Instructions were sent to coordinators and coaches about the new official's ratings system. We will emphasize the importance of the rating system to coaches. At the end of the season we will average and aggregate the data by official, district, division, and team. The output is only as good as the coaches make it going in.

3. Waivers

Hillcrest requests a waiver to the 50% rule. The team consists of, 9 players at Hillcrest, 10 from private schools, 5 from DISD schools. Once a player is waived he is grandfathered.

Kingwood – home schooled and would have attended Kingwood so no waiver is necessary.

Memorial – no waiver is necessary

Woodlands – Current College Park players are grandfathered. Granting a waiver to 2013 – motion made by Al, seconded by Joe, no opposition, passed unanimously.
